New Translation of the Roman Missal

During the month of October we will continue to introduce the new recommended changes in the Mass. We are invited to Stand for the prayers after the offertory and again at the conclusion of Mass for the final Blessing. We will also begin to use the second of the Eucharistic Acclamations printed below.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION:

WHEN WE EAT THIS BREAD AND DRINK THIS CUP, WE PROCLAIM YOUR DEATH, O LORD, UNTIL YOU COME AGAIN.

Day for Life 2011

Each year the Bishops' Conference publish a reflection on Life issues. The message of this year's reflection is "A call to solidarity and hope in difficult times"

"In a culture that often measures happiness in terms of pleasure, success and money, many are thinking again about what brings true meaning and joy to life..... As a Christian, the deepest joy in life does not come from what I have or what I can achieve. It comes from the knowledge that even before I was formed in my mother's womb I was known and loved by my Creator.....God's love gives us the possibility of persevering day by day with patient joy, spurred on by hope, in a world which by its very nature is imperfect."

A copy of this reflection is available at the Church porch.

The Mass follows a “fundamental structure which has been preserved throughout the centuries down to our own day” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1346). Though the Mass is one unified act of worship, it consists of many parts, each with its own purpose and meaning. The entries in this article follow the order in which the parts occur in the Mass.

Introductory Rites: “These rites that precede the Liturgy of the Word, namely, the Entrance, the Greeting, the Penitential Act, the Kyrie, the Gloria in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) and Collect, have the character of a beginning, an introduction, and a preparation. Their purpose is to ensure that the faithful who come together as one, establish communion and dispose themselves properly to listen to the word of God and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal/GIRM], no. 46).

Collect: “This [opening] prayer . . . through which the character of the celebration finds expression” (GIRM, no. 54). This is prayer literally “collects” the prayers of all who are gathered into one prayer led by the priest celebrant.

Liturgy of the Word: “The main part of the Liturgy of the Word is made up of the readings from Sacred Scripture together with the chants occurring between them. As for the Homily, the Profession of Faith and the Universal Prayer, they develop and conclude it” (GIRM, no. 55).
