EVENINGS WITH THE SCRIPTURES

'If Christ is not raised...your faith has nothing in it.' 1 Cor. 15:17

The Resurrection in the Gospel Story

During Lent we offered two evenings on Scripture. The first session offered an overview of Mark's Gospel and the second focused on the Passion Narratives, and how Mark helps us make sense of experiences of failure and betrayal.

But the Gospel story does not end there. We now offer two further sessions where we will study what Mark has to say about the Resurrection of Jesus, and the hope it offers us.

These two evenings will be lead by Fr. Michael Collins C.C. Kilrush in the Community Centre, Kilrush @ 8pm on Wednesday 29th April & Wednesday 6th May 09

If you have a copy of the Bible, please bring it with you.

My First Holy Communion

Today, is special as can be, Because, dear Lord, You'll come to me. You'll call in Your own precious way On this my First Holy Communion Day. My First Confession I have made And with You my sins will fade My soul will be white as snow Then love for you will really grow. The Mass begins, the organ plays The choir sings lovely hymns of praise I pay attention as I pray That you'll be with me every day. Well now, dear Jesus that You're near May I just whisper in Your ear, Will you be good to Mam and Dad Because today they're very glad My family I can't forget As they mind me, they fuss and fret I pray, dear Lord, these too You'll guide

Throughout their lives be at their side. I read mile failte, Lord above, I welcome You with all my love My hope is that You'll always stay from This my First Communion Day.
