Remembering our Deceased

During the month of November, we remember all who have died. We pray for all the deceased you particularly wish to be remembered in our parish Masses for the month.

A special envelope for you to list the deceased you wish to be remembered at our parish Masses during November is available at our churches or in shops where you pick up your newsletter.

You can return the completed list by delivering it to my own house or to the special boxes in Lisdeen or Kilkee church during the periods when the churches are open for private prayer or to Keane's at Lisdeen.

The three parish Masses on Wednesday 18th, Friday 20th and Sunday 22nd November will be Masses celebrated for the deceased of the past year.

If there is any relative or friend you wish to be remembered who may have died outside the parish please leave details with the Parish Office so that we can remember them in prayer during these Masses.

During the month of November I will be posting video prayer services on the Kilkee Parish Facebook page and invite you to join with me there as we pray for our deceased.

Diocesan Day of Remembrance

Because 2020 has been a year like no other, the Diocese of Killaloe, in collaboration with the Anglican Diocese of Limerick, Killaloe & Ardferd, has decided to hold a Day of Remembrance on Friday, November 20th for those who have died in 2020. This Day aims to acknowledging those who have died this year and those who have been bereaved through the death of loved ones. It includes the remembrance of those who have died as a result of the global pandemic, as well as those who have died from other causes during the year.

The day will help us to remember our own beloved dead but also acknowledge and pray for those whose passing and mourning has been so cruelly affected by the COVID protocols in hospitals and nursing homes and around funerals.

The focus of the Remembrance Day will be on short moments of prayer in which everyone can participate at home. These include the following:

- A short radio message and blessing from Bishop Fintan and Bishop Kenneth Kearon (Church of Ireland) will mark the beginning of the day's prayer. (This will also be available on Kilkee Parish Facebook page and the parish website.)
- A Diocese-wide moment of silence and individual prayer at 12 noon to remember the dead and bereaved. The angelus bell will be a reminder of this moment.
- A short prayer time to be broadcast on Clare FM and Tipp FM on Friday evening around 7 p.m.
