Prince of Peace,
you were born into a world where terror reigned and fear ruled and live today in a world crucified by war.

Fill us with your passion for justice that wherever we see evil abound we may live to disturb its path and strive to build bridges of reconciliation.

In the darkness, beckon us with your kindly light that we never lose sight of your vision of peace in which the lion lies down with the lamb. Amen.

We are planning to celebrate the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion in both Doonbeg and Kilkee Parishes in September.
