Celebration of SACRAMENTS

Congratulations to the children of Scoil Réalt na Mara, Kilkee who received First Holy Communion last weekend.

Faith and Doubt...

Gracious God, we come to you not as 100 percent believers without a shadow of doubt, but as honest seekers after truth, trusting that we are following the scent of eternity. We don't ask for the certainty that traps us in a padlocked box., but rather for the mix of faith and doubt that enables us to keep discovering more about you. May we never fear questions, for questions test the truth and give us a more secure place to stand.

We offer ourselves to you, not as perfect Christians but as Christians in draft form, open to your encouragement and grace.

Live in us, work in us, love through us, as we stumble hopefully through this week, seeking to follow your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord , we believe; help our unbelief.

Mass Intentions can be booked at Kilkee Parish Office by phone at 065 9056580 or by email at office@kilkeeparish.com

From next Sunday—3rd October— the Mass schedule will be changing. Evening Masses from Wednesday 6h October will be at 7.00 p.m. in both Lisdeen and Kilkee Churches.

Dance Extravaganza on Kilkee Beach

Sunday 26th September 3pm Performance starts on the sea wall defence platform stage in front of The Strand, goes along the water's edge to the bandstand, where you can strut your stuff and shake off the Covid blues. After this we will all join up with The Irish Whale and Dolphin group to create the shape of a dolphin on the beach to celebrate the rich marine life seen off Kilkee and the west coast this summer.
