Reflection.....

Vincent van Gough died at the age of thirty seven. The day after his death a few of his friends came and decked out the small room where his coffin lay with some of his paintings. It was only then that they realised how beautiful those paintings were.

Today his canvasses are almost beyond price. Yet only one of them was sold while he was still alive. It was sold for a few francs.

This illustrates the truth of what he himself once said:
"Life is only a kind of sowing; the harvest is not here."

November Masses

During the month of November we remember all who have died. We pray for all the deceased who particularly wish to be remembered in our Parish Masses for the month.

Special Envelopes for you to list those you would like to remember are available. Please return your list with your donation at Masses in the coming weeks or at any time to the secure donation boxes in our churches or directly to the Parish Office.
