Reflection.....

O Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds, and whose breath gives life to the world, hear me.
I come to you as one of your many children.

I am small and weak; I need your strength and your wisdom.
Make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.
Make my hands respect the things you have made, and my ears sharp to hear your voice.

Make me wise so that I may know the things you have taught your children, the lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock.

Make me strong, so that I may not be superior to other people, but able to fight my greatest enemy, which is myself.
Make me ever ready to come to you with straight eyes, so that when life fades as the fading sunset, my spirit may come to you without shame.

- Prayer of a Native American

Prayer for Peace in our World

Loving God, We pray for the people of Ukraine, those caught up in the Middle East conflict, and for all those affected in any way by war in our world that you will be close to them and protect them.

We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people who are suffering and for all the world. Amen.

In today's gospel, the steward is praised for his prudence because he recognizes that his future will not be secured by gathering up his commissions (or more), his part of the rich man's wealth. He uses the wealth to make friends who will welcome him and support him in the future. Jesus taught – and Catholic social teaching has long emphasized – that the successful human life is not measured by the accumulation of wealth or power. The "good life" is the fruit of strong and loving relationships, bonds of friendship and justice, and commitment to community wellbeing.

"Mammon" means "what we trust in." Jesus is uncompromising: we cannot put our trust in both God and money. The severe socioecological crisis in these times makes very clear how pursuing and valuing a practical idolatry of wealth above all else threatens and destroys God's gifts in Creation. It betrays our sacred mission to care for Creation and
