Reflection...

"I am grateful for the faith I have and the God I believe in. I don't think I was always grateful for everything I received, which was enormous.

Gratitude is something you learn and it is the way of being which we are most at home in. That's what the Book of Psalms is all about—praise and gratitude. It's not really possible to praise and thank, unless you believe in God. When you do, that is the most appropriate and most satisfying stance you can take. I certainly am happy to take that stance and to create a life in a monastery where praise and thanks constitute the meaning and structure of our lives."

- Mark Patrick Hederman, Glenstal Abbey

Prayer for Peace in our World

Loving God, We pray for the people of Ukraine, those caught up in the Middle East conflict, and for all those affected in any way by war in our world that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people who are suffering and for all the world.
Amen.
