"The cry of displaced children rises to God today," Pope Leo said in his Message for the 112th World Day of Migrants and Refugees, which the Church observes this Sunday, September 27th. The Holy Father recalled that minors are the most vulnerable group within the global movements of migration and observed the suffering of migrant children does not end with their relocation.

He remembered very young children who have lost parents, brothers, sisters and friends, and who have witnessed unspeakable acts of violence; others who have been separated from their families for long periods; and minors, even if making the journey together with their parents, exposed to extreme and traumatic conditions.

"Let us entrust migrant and refugee children to the maternal protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary who, together with Saint Joseph and the child Jesus experienced the cruelty of Herod's violence and the tragedy of exile in Egypt. May she accompany their steps and help our communities to become living and credible signs of the Gospel."

Prayer for Peace in our World

Loving God, We pray for the people of Ukraine, those caught up in the Middle East conflict, and for all those affected in any way by war in our world that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people who are suffering and for all the world.
Amen.
